

SABA

Dear Area Church Leader,

My name is Valencia Toomer. I'm the Founder/Head of School at Pittsboro's School of the Arts for Boys Academy (SABA) and I'm reaching out to spiritual leaders in our area faith community to ask for your assistance, as we finalize our student roster for our upcoming 2023-24 school year.

SABA is a tuition-free school that will begin by serving boys in grades 3-to-6, with a rigorous academic and arts-based focus. (By adding a new grade each subsequent year, our students will be able to attend SABA for their entire scholastic career).

As North Carolina's first tuition-free charter school developed specifically for boys, we are able to exercise latitude in our academic focus. While we follow the NC Standard Course of Study and will prepare our students to achieve success with their annual testing requirements, we also place significant emphasis on character qualities, personal values and whole child development that nourishes our boys' minds, bodies and spirits.

As a person of faith myself, I can assure you that the values we will instill into the lives of our students are closely aligned with the teachings you share with your congregation each week. We know that in emphasizing the moral character development of our boys, we will help to play a role as they become meaningful contributors to our society in the future.

We're a very small school with an enthusiastic team of dedicated educators who are fully committed to the success of each of our students; so no child is ever overlooked or unappreciated. Each child we serve is known, understood, valued and supported in their efforts to achieve their fullest potential in life.

We have a few remaining seats to fill for our 2023-24 school year and I am respectfully asking for any assistance you can provide, as we look to recruit our final group of boys to become part of our school. If SABA sounds like the kind of school that could be of service to some members of your congregation, I would greatly appreciate it if you share our information with them.

A click on this link will take you to a page on our website with much more information about our school. I've included an application link here, for families who are interested in completing a no-obligation enrollment form that would help us make note of their interest in SABA. I'm happy to talk further and can be reached at vtoomer@sabacademy.org to answer questions or to arrange for a tour of our facility.

Thank you for allowing me to share this information with you. I appreciate your support and prayers as we work to provide this meaningful academic choice for boys in our community.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Valencia Toomer, Founder/Head of School
School of the Arts for Boys Academy (SABA)
