SABA

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

Dear SABA Families & Community Supporters,

After further consideration, we've decided to postpone our SABA Community Celebration from this coming Saturday July 29, until after school is underway. We have a lot to accomplish in order to ensure an outstanding start to our first school year. Accordingly, we've reached the conclusion that the best result will be to focus on school opening now, and focus on having a fabulous event in the near future; so that both activities will get the emphasis they deserve. We appreciate your understanding and support as SABA prepares to open the state's first all-boys charter school this August.
