Open Enrollment Continues At SABA For The 2022-23 School Year

The School of the Arts for Boys Academy (SABA) is in the midst of our Open Enrollment period for our inaugural 2022-23 school year.

Classes in grades 3-to-6 for our Chatham County-based school begin this fall. The early admission stage of enrollment concludes April 30. At that time, SABA will conduct a random lottery from among our recent applicants to award seating for first-year students. Students will be chosen at random via a computer-generated program so that all students have an equal opportunity for selection.

To date, 50 students have already received provisional reserved acceptance. All subsequent applications that are received during early enrollment will be entered into the lottery drawing on April 30.

SABA Board Chair Dr. Allyson Alston comments, "These are exciting times at the School of the Arts for Boys Academy, as we proceed with our planning for our first year of school.

"We're in the midst of taking important steps in areas of curriculum, operations, facilities and staffing. Our first day of school will be here soon, but there's still time for young boys and families in Pittsboro and nearby communities to become part of the SABA family. We continue to be gratified by the community support we are receiving and are eager to meet these young men who will be an important, cherished part of the foundation of our school."

We empower and "BUILD" boys to be strong, creative, academic scholars, critical thinkers, & community leaders.

Our special guest on March 10 is SABA Board Member

Timir Cox. "Mr. TC," as he is referred to by youth in the area, is a long-standing servant to the young people in Chatham County and neighboring communities. He served in a variety of capacities at the Boys & Girls Club of Central Carolina in Siler City and Sanford, including his roles as middle school program manager and Area Director at the Wren Center. Mr. Cox's professional background also includes his tenure as a Continuing Education

Facilitator at Central Carolina Community College.

Mrs. Toomer is eager to enjoy a one-on-one conversation with Mr. Cox. She notes, "I'm really looking forward to sitting down with Timir. There's so much ground to cover, including his experiences in serving our young people. He has valuable insights on the specific needs that our children have in the present day, and has ideas on the ways that institutions such as SABA can make a transformative difference in their lives.."
